DETAILED ACTION

ART REJECTION:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Skinner et al(6,928,300).

-- In considering claim 1, the claimed subject matter that is met by Skinner et al(Skinner) includes:

1) the receiving a first status change request including a first user status and duration, establishing a first current user communication status based on the change request, and prompting the user based on the first duration is met by the user holding down the application button(306) for a first time period(see: column 6, lines 5-11), which prompts the user for selectable options(350)(see: column 6, lines 12-29).

-- With regards to claim 2, the first user status message is met by the LEDs or other indicating lights or notifications being turned on as confirmation(see: column 19-25).

-- With regards to claims 3-9, the receiving a second status change request, including a second user status and second duration, second user status and second user status message, establishing the second current user communication status, prompting the user based on the second duration are met by the application button being held for a 2nd time period, so as to enable a confirmation message as to the state of the device(see: column 6, lines 41-63).

-- With regards to claim 10, the transmitting the user communication status is met by the user device notification status being transmitted to the user via LED confirmation(see: column 6, lines 22-25).

-- Claims 11-20 recite subject matter that is met as discussed in claims 1-9 above, as well as:

1) the processor and interface are met by the processing unit(210) and the application button(306).

-- Claims 21-30 recite subject matter that is met as discussed in claims 1-9 above, as well as:

1) the computer program product and code are met by the computer(200) including operating system(222) and applications(223) and program(280)(see: column 5, lines 11-26).
